

Week of 6/04/2018 Operations Update

There were two consecutive weeks of broods of Aedes infirmatus resulting from all the rain.

There may be another brood next week based on the amount of rain recorded on May 31.

Yellow zones were treated by truck in the AM by truck. Blue polygons were treated by helicopter in the PM.

