

Week of 10/9/2018 Operations Update

Mosquito populations are low overall but Culex nigripalpus, a West Nile Virus vector, surged in Matanzas Woods.

This species is of concern because it spreads WNV and the peak period of transmission is September and October.

Yellow zones were treated by truck. Blue polygon was aerial aduicide mission.

